YANKS WIN FIRST GAME

The two New York baseball teams, the American League and the National League, won the pennants for this year and are now playing the world's series for the championship. The first game was won by the American League team by a score of 5 to 0. Carl Mays, formerly of Louisville, pitched for the Americans and Douglas for the Giants. Five hits were allowed by each pitcher, but the Yanks were lucky. Ruth made a two bagger but no home run. Each made four of the five hits off of
